

Fact OR Fiction...

It has been more than 25 years since The Baptist Home ended its asset turnover policy but news of the change has yet to reach everyone.

...FACT

In the early decades of its existence, The Baptist Home served only those Missouri Baptists with the greatest need. Whatever assets they had were given to The Home and additional costs of care were covered by contributions from churches and individuals.

Since then The Baptist Home's reputation as a solid, secure and high-quality retirement option has made it an appealing choice for Christians from all financial situations.

Private pay residents add to the size and diversity of The Baptist Home family and enable The Home to provide even better care to those in need.
